FIRE ENGINE
COLLIDES WITH TROLLEY CAR

While responding to the alarm of fire from Box 31 at Wall and Water streets this morning the steamer of No. 1 Engine company collided with the rear of a Beardsley Park car at Wall and Main streets in front of the Davis & Hawley jewelry store and broke one of the poles on the steamer. The driver of the engine was William Tobin. No one was injured. The horses were unharmed. The broken pole punched a big hole through the rear of the vestibule of the car before breaking. The cause of the accident lay in the car stopping directly in front of the steamer which had just turned into Main street from John street. The fire, which was in a heap of rubbish in the rear of Smith & Comstock's store at Water street. It was extinguished before the apparatus arrived.

MAN SET FIRE TO HIMSELF

(Special from the United Press.)
New York, Oct. 29.—Daniel Edwin Hurley, 27, an actor and singer connected with the Dolly Varden Company insane over religion, built a circle of fire in the street in front of 15 Beekman street, early today and stood in the center of it, to burn to death. Passersby interfered but his clothes had caught and the flames were encircling his body. He was hurried to Flower Hospital but had inhaled flames and will die.

"Why did you want to burn yourself to death?" Hurley was asked. "The devil was in me," he replied, "and I wanted to get to my God clean and it was better to be cleaned by fire."

Hurley's home is in Providence, R.

TO CROSS ATLANTIC IN DIRIGIBLE BALLOON
(Special from the United Press.)
New York, Oct. 29.—Within two years Count Zeppelin, the inventor of the Zeppelin type of dirigible balloon, expects to send a dirigible across the Atlantic. The Count expressed this prophesy to Otto Kahn, the New York banker who returned today from Europe. Kahn met Count Zeppelin in Germany.
Instead of a plain finish, some of the satins have a dull, crepe-like finish. These, with the soft shades, are particularly beautiful for house or evening gowns.

America's Dreadnaught
In Navy Yard Drydock

(Special from United Press.)
Boston, Oct. 29.—America's second "Dreadnaught," the battleship North Dakota is in drydock here today at the Charleston Navy Yard after her maiden run in from Quincy where she was built, to Provincetown. On that run the big naval fighter was put through her boiler test to ascertain if she was able to exceed her contract speed of 21 knots but no information has been given out as to how she acted.

The North Dakota will remain in drydock here for some days preparing for her official trial off the Maine coast next week.

PORTER ENTERTAINED BRIDGEPORT CLUB.

Harry F. Porter, the widely known Cornell athlete delivered an address last evening at the Bridgeport club where a smoker was held. He also gave a vivid account of the Olympic games held in England last year. He had pictures illustrating his talk which added greatly to the interest of the subject. Herbert L. Trubee also of Cornell was introduced by Mr. Porter and spoke on the benefits to be derived in a community where athletics are practiced. Other entertainers were Joseph Driscoll, Frank Buckley, Harvey & Fay, William Tomlinson and Charles Dickinson. Music was also furnished by the Hungarian and Harvey orchestras. Refreshments followed the entertainment.

CHANGE IN LARGE

DANBURY HAT CONCERN.
Danbury, Oct. 29.—An important change in one of the largest manufacturing concerns in this city is announced with the changing of the name of the Millard Hat Company to the Connecticut Hat Company. Thomas C. Millard, president of the Danbury National Bank, founder of the Millard Hat Company, retires from the corporation and Leroy S. Millard and T. Cheever Millard, his sons, will be associated with William H. Green and John W. Green in the new company, which will occupy the Millard factory.

BRITISH SCHOONER STRIKES WOOD ISLAND.
Bedford, Me., Oct. 29.—The two-masted British schooner Valletta, St. John to Boston, is high on the rocks of Danbury Ledge just off Wood Island to-day. She struck last night and is leaking badly but has a chance of being pulled off at high tide. Captain McOliney and the three members of the crew escaped with their boats to Wood Island.

MUSK OXEN SHOOTING

IS CALLED BUTCHERY
In a recent issue of the Yale Alumni Weekly was an article about hunting in the Polar regions by George Burup, Yale, 07, one of Peary's North Pole party. To this Professor G. R. Wieland, of Yale, now in Mexico, takes strong exception, characterizing the story of the shooting of musk oxen, etc., as "butchery."

STATE TREASURER'S REPORT

SHOWS DEBT INCREASE.
The state treasurer's report for the fiscal year ended Sept. 30, shows an increase of $1,464,814.42 in the state's net debt during the year. The increase is caused largely by the borrowing of $200,000 in temporary loans and the selling of $1,000,000 worth of bonds. The total receipts for the year amounted to $5,417,903.96 and the disbursements amounted to $6,882,718.42 in excess of the receipts.

BOTH BOYS SAVED.

Louis Eoon, a leading merchant of Norway, Mich., writes: "Three bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar absolutely cured my boy of a severe cough, and a neighbor's boy was so ill with a cold that the doctors gave him up. He was cured by taking Foley's Honey and Tar. Nothing else is as safe and certain in result." F. B. Brill and Curtis Pharmacy, local agents.
